

HENSCHEL TECHNOLOGIES

Meet Fry.

Your personal IT pro and admin assistant, for your whole team. Fry creates tickets for you, handles basic IT tasks, and knows your business — so your people get help the moment they need it.

One helper, every desk in the company.

Creates tickets for you

Tell Fry what's wrong — your ticket is created and tracked automatically.

Handles basic IT tasks

Reboots, internet troubleshooting, everyday fixes — on the spot.

Knows your business

Set up around your systems, your tools, your way of working.

Backed by our team

Built by Henschel Technologies — hands off to a real engineer.

Simple pricing, one clear perk.

Our managed-services clients get Fry at the insider rate.

CLIENT PERK

MANAGED-SERVICES CLIENTS

$10

per user · per month

On any Henschel managed IT plan, Fry rides along at our best price — for every user in your company.

NOT ON A MANAGED PLAN YET?

per user · per month

Fry is still yours — full access, same helper. And the door to the client rate stays open.
